DIGESTION
MADE EASY.
One of the most prevalent of modern ailments is known as indigestion. Its attendant miseries are only too familiar to sufferers are often unaware of the cause of the trouble. Many people, in these days, are unable to live what may be termed a sufficiently careful life. Busy occupations abound; overwork is on the increase; worries and anxieties multiply. These and other adverse conditions do not permit the digestive system to perform its work with the requisite regularity and efficiency. The result is that the waste products of digestion are not effectively eliminated. Hence acidity, flatulence, biliousness, headache, depression of spirits, and many wretched symptoms. The trouble does not always end here; there is always the danger of the sufferer becoming a chronic dyspeptic with a disordered system so impaired as to be unequal to the work necessary for the maintenance of full and abundant physical vigour. An ideal medicine for the relief and cure of the trouble is Beecham's Pills. Their cleansing, corrective, and tonic action quickly restores the digestive powers. Weak accumulations are removed—Health returns—Digestion is made easy—by taking

ABBEY THEATRE

An initial effort, "The Spoiling of Wilson," a one-act play, by Mr. H. J. Bell, must be recorded as a success, though it has some obvious faults in construction. It is inclined to go to an unfair length, but, with judicious pruning, it might be shaped into a robust play. It just falls short of being a genuine success by a few deficiencies in construction. The dialogue, which is frequently lambent, is one of the best features of the piece, and the story is well told, though at times it goes at breakneck speed. It tells of the dismissal of a confidential clerk, Gaselee, on a false charge of selling the secrets of his employer, Sir Richard Steele, brought by an unscrupulous official, Henry Wilson, who is really the culprit. After some exciting situations, dexterously created, virtue triumphs, Sir Richard presents a cigar to his wronged employee, and promotes him to Wilson's post. There is nothing very novel about the theme, but its merit lies rather in its treatment, not alone on the part of the author, but also of the actors. Were Mr. O'Donovan by any chance out of the cast, one might form a different opinion of the merits of the play, as his towering strength sometimes gives a false appearance of weakness a part such as that under notice. His study of Costello is worthy of inclusion in his large portrait gallery. Mr. Nolan was effective as Sir Richard Steele, and Mr. Vernon made the most of the part of Wilson. Miss Ione Kelly did very well as Miss Devine, a silly, giggling character, and Maureen Delany was exceptional as Mrs. Costello, while Miss Dorothy Lynd, and Messrs. Shields and McDonald filled their small parts creditably. The large audience also enjoyed Mr. Murray's clear drama, "Maurice Harte." Miss Christine Hayden, one of the newest recruits, did very well as Miss Harte. The orchestra played a nicely selected programme.

PETROL AND POLITICS.

At the Listowel Petty Sessions, before Messrs. H. R. Jones, R.M., and Philip Healy, J.P., Mr. M. J. Leahy, motor car proprietor and driver, was charged by District Inspector M. J. Molloy with using motor spirit for the purpose of a motor car let for hire to Madame Markievicz, such letting not being in connection with ambulance work, conveying soldiers, etc., on Sunday, 21st October.

Acting Sergeant Murphy gave evidence as to seeing the defendant drive the car from Listowel in the direction of Athea, where a Sinn Fein meeting was to be held. The motor contained Madame Markievicz and other persons.

The contention of the Crown was that Madame Markievicz, in driving to a meeting, was not using the car for business purposes or public duties.

Mr. Marshall held that the car was hired for business purposes on the occasion—for political purposes.

The magistrates were divided, and the case was adjourned for a fortnight.

For the first time on record no cheese was on offer at Lancaster Cheese Fair yesterday.

SINN FEIN PRISONERS TRANSFERRED.

REPORTED HUNGER STRIKE AT DUNDALK.

Early yesterday morning the Sinn Fein prisoners sentenced under the Defence of the Realm Act were conveyed in military motor wagons from Mountjoy Prison, Dublin, to the Amiens street Station of the Great Northern Railway, and were carried thence by rail to Dundalk, where for the future they will be imprisoned. The prisoners numbered sixty-two, and their transfer from Mountjoy was effected with the utmost secrecy, the result being that there were very few spectators in the neighbourhood of the prison when they were marched out to the motor wagons under an escort of armed police and prison warders. On their way to the motor wagons they sang Sinn Fein songs, and were cheered by the spectators. At Amiens street a number of sympathetic civilians on the platform cheered the prisoners, who were placed in special carriages provided for the occasion, and the train immediately ran out of the station.

The prisoners, writes our Dundalk correspondent yesterday, arrived in Dundalk shortly after seven o'clock. The train was punctually observed, and, under a heavily-armed police escort, the prisoners marched six deep to the prison, which is situate a short distance from the station. On the way some of them saluted "the foes of the rebels." Up to a short time ago the prison had been used as a Red Cross hospital for the treatment of wounded soldiers, but are at present accommodated in the Local Industrial Institution. For a fortnight past workmen have been engaged in making preparations at the prison for the detention of the Sinn Fein prisoners. A military guard is in charge of the place.

In the afternoon it was learned that all the men had given a hunger-strike owing to the bad food. They complain that the food offered them is that given to unitied prisoners, and they demand food similar to that given in Mountjoy. Up till the evening no food had been partaken of. At 3 o'clock Messrs. J. W. Turner and James MacAdorey, visiting justices, attended at the prison at the request of the Governor (Mr. McHugh), and confirmed the Mountjoy rule as to the allowance of the usual visits.

A QUESTION IN PARLIAMENT.

Mr. DUKE, answering Mr. Lynch, in the House of Commons yesterday, said that the Sinn Fein prisoners were not deprived of necessary clothing. Their boots were removed, but they were furnished with others. They were not deprived of any other articles of clothing. The Acting Governor of the prison was the officer responsible.

SINN FEIN DRILLING.

The Glin Sinn Fein Volunteers, fifty-four strong, marched to a field in the outskirts of the town on Sunday, and were put through various drill movements. The police were present and saw all that took place.

A SINN FEIN COLLECTION.

Fourteen young people were charged at the Listowel Petty Sessions by District Inspector M. J. Molloy for having made a collection outside the church gate at Ballydonoghue on Sunday, 14th October, in aid of the "National Aid Fund."

The defendants, none of whom appeared, were fined a shilling each.

RESULT OF A BELFAST COURT-MARTIAL.

James Johnston, of Castlewellan, County Down, civilian, was tried by District Court-martial at Belfast on the 7th inst., for an offence against the Defence of the Realm Regulations (Military Exercises and Drill (Ireland) Order, 1916), and, having been found guilty by the Court, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment, with hard labour. The General Officer Commanding-in-Chief the Forces in Ireland, when confirming this Court, remitted the hard labour and three months of the sentence.

SPORTING NEWS.

TRALEE MEETING—YESTERDAY.

The weather was again fine for the concluding afternoon's racing, and, as on the previous day, the racing was quite interesting. Molly's Pet, Fairlight, and Gold Vein started in equal request for the Mangerton Hurdle Plate, and Worthy Earl, who on many occasions has refused to start, was also a runner. This time he mended his manners, and proved too fast for the others from the last hurdle. Kroo Boy carried top weight to easy victory in the Corinthian Plate. Vobis and Barmeeide shared favouritism for the Directors' Plate, but the latter ran moderately, and was beaten half a mile from home. On the other hand, Vobis was in front for practically all the way, and readily supplemented his Limerick success. Mr. Usher's stable was again to the fore in the Kerry Plate with Submarine, who got the best of a good finish with Loch Stack. Only three runners turned out for the Southern Plate, and the odds laid on Stoke Bridge were easily landed; while in the last race another odds on favourite in Irish Cheer materialised. Details:—

1.30—THE MANGERTON PLATE of 40 sovs. A hurdle race. 2½ m.

Mr. J. H. Taylor's br. h. WORTHY EARL, by Earls Mor—Simonsworth, 5, 10-10 ..... Jos. Canty 1

Mrs. Joseph Widger's FAIRLIGHT, a. ..... W. Smith 2

Mr. J. L. Molloy's GOLD VEIN, 6, 11-12 ..... F. M'Naughton 3

Also ran—Mr. P. Cullinan's Molly's Pet, 5, 10-10 (Mr. Harrison); Mr. M. Hanley's Audby, a, 10-5, £50 (R. Wheeler). (Winner trained by M. Dawson, Curragh.)

Betting—5 to 2 each agst. Molly's Pet, Fairlight, and Gold Vein, 5 to 1 WORTHY EARL, 20 to 1 Audby.

Molly's Pet settled down from Audby, Gold Vein, and Fairlight, with Worthy Earl in the rear, till half a mile from home, when Molly's Pet was followed by Gold Vein and Worthy Earl. The last-named took command at the final hurdle, and won in a canter by twenty lengths; four lengths between second and third. Molly's Pet was fourth.

2.0—THE CORINTHIAN FLAT RACE of 40 sovs. A handicap flat race. 2 m.

Mr. L. Brabazon's b. h. KROO-ROY, by Kroonstad—Arthur's Love, 6, 11-0 ..... C. Aylin 1

Mr. J. P. Hogan's MANISTER BRIDGE, 5, 10-1 ..... T. Burns 2

Mr. J. Murphy's FUGLE MAID, 3, 9-7 ..... E. Davey 3

Also ran—Mr. J. Nugent's The Hun, 5, 10-6 (Mr. W. Parkinson); Mrs. Malcomson's Cellar Glen, 5, 10-2 (Mr. L. Brabazon); Mr. J. W. Widger's Maroc, 6, 9-13 (M. Colbert). (Winner trained by Mr. Brabazon, Navan.)

Betting—11 to 10 on KROO-ROY, 7 to 2 agst. Maroc, 6 to 1 Manister Bridge, 8 to 1 Fugle Maid, 10 to 1 The Hun, 20 to 1 any other.

Salaam made play from Fugle Maid, Kroo Boy, Cellar Glen, and Manister Bridge, with The Hun last, for half the distance, when Fugle Maid went on from Kroo Boy, Manister Bridge, and Maroc. Half a mile from home Kroo Boy drew out, and won easily by three lengths; a head between the second and third. The Hun was fourth, and Salaam fifth.

After the race Mr. Colbert, the rider of Maroc, lodged a complaint against T. Burns, the rider of Manister Bridge, for foul riding. After hearing the evidence, the Stewards dismissed the complaint.

ALLEGED FLOGGING OF SOLDIERS.

"A CRUEL AND ABHORRENT CHARGE."

Mr. BOLAND, in the House of Commons yesterday, asked the Under Secretary of State for War whether he had now made further inquiries into the cases of flogging of Irish soldiers by order of Lieutenant Gilliland in the prisoners of war camp in Philippopolis; whether any cases of flogging by German officers of German soldiers has been reported to him from any prisoners of war camps in this country, or of flogging by Turkish officers of Irish soldiers in prisoners of war camps, and what action he had taken in the matter.

Mr. MACPHERSON said that he had carefully perused all the information available, and had come to the conclusion that the charges against Lieutenant Gilliland had been recklessly and unjustly made. He was not commandant of the camp, and the orders for flogging for admitted offences were given by the commandant. He (Mr. Macpherson) received, on the previous day, from the Foreign Office, a copy of a letter received by the Foreign Office from the American Embassy here. It was dated Stuttgart, and was from Mr. Hallam Hare, of the Legation of the United States of America in Sofia, and was addressed to Lieutenant Gilliland's sister. The letter stated the case briefly to a cruel charge against an officer, a charge which would make pleasant reading for our enemies, and one which was abhorrent to us. Mr. Murphy's representations were received by Mr. MacNeil and Mr. Einstein, who preceded Mr. Murphy at the Legation at Sofia. Mr. Macpherson then read the letter, in which Mr. Murphy stated that Lieutenant Gilliland was innocent of the charge.

Mr. BOLAND—Are we to understand that the statement voluntarily given in the case, by four repatriated Irish prisoners who had not been flogged, but of their own knowledge spoke of flogging having taken place, and also a statement by a non-Irish Child Clerk, in the Clerk in Charge of Accounts, Mr. John Hooper, B.A., Superintendent of the Stables, and Inspector Mr. J. J. Coyle, Senior Staff Officer; Mr. F. J. Merrick, M.A.; Mr. W. Bowers, Mr. M. Deegan, and Mr. J. E. Leamon.

Mr. J. V. Coyle acted as Secretary to the meeting.

The Board had under consideration the itinerant agricultural instruction scheme for 1918, and the provision of funds therefor. In this connection the Board unanimously adopted the following resolution:—

The Board consider that the strongest effort should be made to have additional funds provided at once for the regular permanent agricultural schemes of the Department. From their experience they are satisfied that it was the educational work of every kind done under these schemes during the past seventeen years which made possible the remarkable response given by Ireland this year to the call for war food production; and it is the deliberate opinion that the success of the policy of increased tillage and food production desired by the Corn Production Act is absolutely dependent on the full maintenance and extension of these schemes, and that the Board receive a deputation from them in reference to this question, and that the Irish Parliamentary representatives of different parties should be requested to assist in getting the matter dealt with. The following were named as representatives on the proposed deputation:—Most Rev. Dr. Kelly, Bishop of Ross; Mr. J. Stoppe M'Cance, J.P.; Mr. Robert Downes, Mr. John F. Haydon, M.P.

The following resolution was also adopted unanimously in regard to the payment of war bonuses to county and other officers employed for the purposes of agricultural schemes:—

The Board approve of the action of the Department as the only course open to them in the exceptional circumstances of providing for the payment of the bonus, without inflicting further delay and hardship on the officers concerned; but they protest strongly against being obliged to provide this payment from their diminished funds, and to do this by selling at a loss. The funds necessary for this payment should have been furnished by the Exchequer, as the Board and the Department have already acted, and the Board now desire it to be made known to H.M. Government that they expect the loss to the Endowment Fund to be made good by the Exchequer as soon as possible, and provision made for the payment of the war bonus in the coming year.

BOARD OF TECHNICAL INSTRUCTION.

A meeting of the Board of Technical Instruction was held at the offices of the Department, on the 9th inst. The following members attended:—

The Right Hon. Sir Thomas W. Russell, Bart., P.C., M.P., Vice-President of the Department (in the chair); Mr. J. Bourke, Mr. J. Clarke, Rev. Canon Daly, P.P.; Mr. R. Downes, D.D., M.R.I.A., F.L.H.; Rev. P. A. Finlay, M.A.; Sir John Barr Johnston, J.P.; Mr. E. Long, J.P.; Mr. William Macartney, J.P.; Mr. Francis McBride, J.P.; Rev. J. J. Mahy, P.P.; Alderman Samuel T. Mercier, J.P.; Mr. Seaghan T. O'Ceallaigh, Alderman Philip O'Donovan. Mr. Richard Sell; Mr. Alexander Taylor.

Mr. T. P. Gill, Secretary of the Department; Mr. George Fletcher, B.Sc., Assistant Secretary; and Mr. Lloyd Chief Inspector, Mr. H. G. Smith, M.A., LL.D., Chief Clerk; Mr. J. V. Coyle, Senior Staff Officer; Mr. L. Kelly, Mr. Victoria Dixon, B.A.; Mr. H. Garrett, B.Sc., Ph.D.; Mr. W. Bowers, and Mr. J. T. Leamon, were also present.

Mr. J. V. Coyle acted as Secretary to the meeting:—

The Board had under consideration the provision of funds for the several schemes of technical instruction in connection with the Department, and for the payment of war bonuses to officers employed in connection therewith. The following resolution was adopted unanimously:—

Proposed by Mr. Andrew Beattie, D.L., seconded by Mr. E. J. Long, J.P.:—

That this Board desire to express their regret that the proposal of the Department that special funds should be provided by the Treasury for the payment of a war bonus to whole-time officers employed under the Agriculture and Technical Instruction Act was not acceded to; and they hope that funds will now be provided, not only in respect of the amount already thus spent from the Department's Endowment Fund, but also to enable a similar bonus to be paid to these whole-time officers for the year 1918. The Board also desire to express their regret that the necessary expenditure additional funds should be placed at the disposal of the Department and of the Technical Instruction Committees to make such schemes have already suffered through shortage of financial aid, and to meet the urgent need for the development of technical education in Ireland, especially in view of the greatly increased demands in this direction arising from war conditions, including the enormous development of the food production schemes.

DUBLIN AND DISTRICT.

Arrivals of Tea.—The stacked-up chests of tea which decorated landing stages and platforms at the North Wall recently are agreeable to look upon. Further to the eastward along "the Wall" the all-necessary sugar, although bashful of appearing in the light, was also to be seen.

Successful Property Sale.—Yesterday Messrs. James H. North and Co. had a successful sale of property at 110 Grafton street, Dublin, when all lots offered were sold. The property consisted of the detached residence known as The Bungalow, Sutton, Nos. 1, 2, and 3 Caryafort road, Dalkey, sold separately, and a ground rent of £21 per annum, payable out of No. 2, Clonard, South Circular road. The last-mentioned lot realised £305, the purchaser paying commission. The solicitors concerned for the different lots were Messrs. Casey, Clay, and Collins, J. R. Cresswell, and Little and Cullen.

Guiding the Strangers' Steps.—Yesterday a new and highly necessary indicator of traffic routes was placed in position at the north side of the central platform of O'Connell Bridge. This new device, which has many "arms," points the way to and stipulates the distance to be travelled by strangers as between the bridge and Harcourt street Station, Westland Row, North Wall steamers (L.N.W.R.), Amiens street, Broadstone, and Kingsbridge.

THE POTATO SCHEME.

BASE PRICES FIXED.

Mr. CLYNES, in the House of Commons yesterday, informed Mr. Duncan Miller that the charge upon the Exchequer involved by the War Cabinet's decision to compensate growers who sell potatoes of the 1917 crop below the guaranteed price of £6 per ton was estimated not to exceed £5,000,000. There was reason to believe that the reduced price would bring about, not only an increased consumption of potatoes, but a decreased consumption of cereals, in which event there would be a reduction of the bread subsidy, as a set-off against the potato subsidy. The Food Controller had decided to fix the base prices under the new potato scheme as follows, for the period ending December 31, 1917:—

For England and Wales—£5 per ton, free on rail, at grower's station.
For Scotland—£4 10s. per ton.
For Ireland—£4 per ton.

THE AMERICAN WAR MISSION.

IMPORTANT CONSULTATIONS.

A statement issued by the American Embassy last night says that the fact that little has been heard publicly of the American War Mission since their arrival on 8th inst. is because it is essentially a working mission, which has been very busy ever since its arrival.

Colonel House was received by the King on Sunday, and conferred with His Majesty soon an hour, and Colonel and Mrs. House lunched at Buckingham Palace on Monday. Colonel House has also been in conference with many members of the British Government, and was French officials who have been in London, with his callers at Chesterfield House have included Mr. Balfour, M. Klotz, the French Minister of Finance; Lords Milner, Reading, Northcliffe, Curzon, and Green; Generals Smuts and Robertson; Sir Edward Carson, and Lord Robert Cecil. He has also lunched privately with Admiral Jellicoe and with Mr. Bonar Law.

Admiral Benson and General Bliss have been in close consultation with the British Naval and Military authorities. Mr. Crosby, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, has had frequent conferences with Mr. Bonar Law and his colleagues on the question pertaining to international finance. Mr. McCormick, Chairman of the War Trade Board, and Dr. Taylor have been working out problems connected with the blockade with responsible authorities here.

Mr. Bainbridge Colby, the representative of the United States Shipping Board, has been conferring with General Collard, Sir Allan Anderson, and Sir Joseph Maclay, and other shipping officials of the British Government, on projects presented by the present tonnage question. Mr. Colby will visit a number of British shipbuilding plants, and, in particular, study the utilisation of female labour in connection with the industry. Mr. Thomas Nelson Perkins, the representative of the United States Munitions Industries and Priority Board has been taking up many questions with Mr. Winston Churchill, Sir Worthington Evans, Sir Charles Ellis, and various heads of the British Ministry of Munitions.

The members of the American Mission are enthusiastic at the reception accorded them in their British colleagues, while the spirit of co-operation manifested on all sides has been extraordinary. The members of the Mission have been particularly struck with the cordial hospitality everywhere extended them, and will carry back to America the kindliest feelings and appreciation thereof.

DUBLIN LABOUR UNREST.

ARBITRATION COMMENCED.

An important step towards the settlement of labour troubles in Dublin was made yesterday, when Mr. Justice Whittaker opened his arbitration between the Alliance and Dublin Consumers' Gas Company and certain of their employés in Dublin, Bray and Kingstown, at the Shelbourne Hotel, and Mr. Henry Hanna, K.C., commenced his arbitration between the Dublin Master Bakers' Association and their bakers and van-drivers, at the Mansion House. The Master Bakers are represented by Sir Joseph Downes, Chairman of the Association's executive committee; the Irish Bakers' Association by Mr. Cullen, the Secretary, and the Transport Workers by Mr. Larkin and Mr. Kennedy. At the opening of the arbitration Mr. Hanna, in answer to Mr. Kennedy, ruled that the motor vans and drivers were included in the terms of reference, but that the dairy clerks were not included. The workmen's case is that the increase of wages was then gone into in detail by the various classes, evidence being given by Mr. Cullen, Mr. Curtis, Mr. Rogers, and Mr. Coates. The evidence as to the work done after having been completed, Mr. Hanna adjourned the case until this afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, when the employers' case on the question of wages will be taken into consideration. It is proposed to go into the question of the eight hours' day and Sunday labour afterwards. The Lord Mayor was in attendance, and took a great interest in the proceedings.

Messrs. Bolands, Limited, state that the application made to them by their men, which was in writing, asked an increase of pay for "the labourers employed in their mills," and for no other class of workmen. They offered the labourers the increase allowed by the Food Controller, and agreed to by other millers—viz., an addition of 2s. a week to wages and 2s. a week to war bonus. This was refused without comment, and without any statement that workmen other than the labourers were meant to be included. There was also a demand for a reduction in the number of working hours per week, and other demands being apparently made—one for an increase in the rate of payment for overtime, and one for the inclusion of mill operatives as well as labourers—but because necessary to refer again to the Food Controller, and he has sanctioned an offer of an addition of 2s. a week to the wages and 2s. a week to the war bonus, this increase to be given to all the mill operatives, and the total war bonus to be added to the wages in the calculation of overtime. This offer will now be made.

The Dublin Coal Merchants' Association have intimated that they are unable to accede to the demands put forward by carters, bankmen, and fillers, but would be willing to submit the matters in dispute to arbitration, and welcome the assistance of the Lord Mayor in that respect. A somewhat similar reply is that of the Shipping Association.

The deadlock in regard to the funeral business continues to exist, and there were very few funerals at Glasnevin Cemetery on Monday, and of them were carried out by the ordinary means of transport. Negotiations have been opened between the parties, and there is some prospect of settlement. The dispute does not affect Mr. Weller, of Denzille street, or Messrs. Shields, of Leeson street. There was a manifestation of sympathy with the strikers yesterday morning, when the chief mourners of two funerals refused to take hearses supplied by the Dublin Job-Carriage and Coffin-Makers' Protection Society, and had a procession on foot. The men, were out for an increase from 2s. to 2s. 6d. on the leading. What they wanted was an advance of 5d. on the present price. Where the latter was 2s. they wanted 2s. 6d. They did not think it unreasonable, as it was the public, and not the masters, who paid them. The masters' present rate of wages was 10s. for horse-drivers, 6s. for carriage-drivers; and the men wanted an advance of 2s. on that. Out of it they had to buy their own livery coats, hats, whips, and any waterproof clothing they might require, as well as brushes, and even oil to clean their harness. The masters had said that the average number of jobs in a week was eight. But there had been cases in which members of the society were ten days off. There were not four men who could boast of earning £2 a week before the strike. As for carmen, two-and-a-half people had enough to do with their money without throwing tips about.

M. VENEZELOS IN LONDON.

Reuter's Agency is informed that the duration of M. Venezelos's stay in this country is not yet settled. M. Venezelos, who is accompanied by his son, was met on arrival by Mr. Balfour, the Greek Minister, the Greek Consul-General, the staff of the Legation, and members of the Greek colony. Later in the afternoon he visited the Foreign Office.

ALLEGED BRITISH OFFER TO AUSTRIA.

Reuter's Agency is officially authorised to issue a categorical denial of the statement that during the war British statesmen have approached Austria with a promise of compensation if she would make a separate peace.

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY.

A shooting affray occurred at Carrickmacross last night, says our Carrickmacross correspondent, as a result of which a young man named Peter Byrne, who resided at Cloughballey, Carrickmacross, received a revolver wound from which he died in about five minutes. Shortly after the occurrence a man named Thomas Martin, a native of the County Louth, is said to have surrendered at the police station. It appears that Martin is the caretaker of a farm from which Byrne's parents were evicted some years ago. Martin was in a public-house last night when Byrne entered, and it is said that an altercation occurred between them. Some time after they had left a revolver shot was heard, and it is alleged that Byrne and Martin were seen together on the ground. Byrne, who was shot in the stomach, was medically attended, but died in a few minutes.

FROM "THE TIMES" OF TO-DAY.

(BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE PROPRIETORS OF THE TIMES.)

THE CONDITIONS OF UNITY.

The Prime Minister's speech in Paris, says The Times, created a result yesterday foreseen and deliberately taken into account by the speaker, and the House of Commons exhibited symptoms premonitory of an acute Parliamentary quarrel. Mr. Asquith's appeal for a statement was natural and proper enough, but The Times notes in the cheers greeting it an obvious meaning, and declares that the kind of schism to which they point must be resisted like the plague. The broad plan which Mr. Lloyd George has outlined may easily be overshadowed by the detailed, and even the personal, aspects of the military organisation which is to carry it out. That is an important and highly debatable question, but it must be judged in relation to the main idea from which it springs. Mr. Lloyd George is entirely right in seeking to regularise the procedure of war conferences, but what is far less sound is his review of events, by which he supported his argument. Broadly speaking, his error is the supposition that ever-the closest unity of control would have prevented all the military set-backs of the war. Many of them were due to other causes: some to causes older than the war itself, to geographical conditions, to national weaknesses, and, above all, to the slow concentration of strength, inevitable in an alliance of peoples who were largely unprepared for war. The Governments of the past have more to answer for in this respect than any which have been in power during the last three years. Least fortunate of all is the impression conveyed by the speech, as a whole, that all the past efforts of the Allies have been unwise or wasted. It is corrected, no doubt, by isolated passages, but, none the less, it remains. We warned the public last week against the danger of jumping to the conclusion that our present plans are necessarily wrong, because the strategic link between the Allies has hitherto been relatively slight. The Prime Minister seems to us to have committed the very blunder we had in mind. As our readers know, we are all for plain speaking. No people thrives on it so well as our people. But disheartening statements must be justified by the facts, and the facts in this case are not by any means so damning as the Prime Minister would make them. The true view is that, while in many respects we have not done so badly, we can and will do better. A properly constituted Allied War Council should go far to help us.

MR. ASQUITH'S QUESTION.

There was only one subject of conversation in the Lobby yesterday, says The Times, and that was the Prime Minister's remarkable speech in Paris the day before. Members had not had such a sensation for a very long time, and there was a general disposition at first to approach the matter as if it contained all the elements of a first-class political crisis. But as the evening wore on, and no tangible evidence of an impending crisis was forthcoming, beyond Mr. Asquith's obvious wish to enter a protest against the Prime Minister's interpretation of certain chapters in the history of the war, the excitement gradually subsided, and observers were able to see the speech and its probable consequences in better perspective. The incident was small, so far as it went, but members were not slow to read into Mr. Asquith's tone the first hint of the revival of an old controversy. This Parisian speech was caught and passed from every conceivable standpoint, and no two members were in agreement on the interpretation of its salient passages, or, indeed, on the relative importance to be attached to the Prime Minister's announcement of policy and his reading of history. Mr. Asquith will put his question to-day, and it is understood that the Prime Minister, notwithstanding the pressure of business since his return yesterday, will be prepared to answer it in detail. It will depend upon the nature of that statement whether a debate arises over the whole field of politics and strategy.

THE COUNCIL AND THE COMMITTEE.

The Military Correspondent of The Times writes:—The creation of a Supreme Political Council of the Allies for the whole of the Western front, and the attachment to it of an Advisory Military Committee, are innovations fraught with many possibilities for good or evil. A desire for the closest possible co-operation on all fronts has been a leading idea throughout the war with all the Allied Governments; and has the co-operation been lacking in the past. If it be now considered a good thing to do to regularise these conferences, and to supply a Secretariat of a more permanent character to register the political decisions formed, no one will seriously desire to object to the arrangement. The appointment of a Military Committee of an advisory character raises other questions of a more debatable kind. The Chiefs of our War and General Staffs, or representatives nominated by, and in close agreement with, them, are obviously the proper persons to accompany Ministers when naval or military affairs are under discussion. The legitimate province of these Chiefs is war organisation, strategy, and operations. It is the right of a Government to select those whom they consider the best men to be these chiefs, and to change them if they prove inefficient, subject to the proviso that they possess the confidence of the fighting services. Having chosen these chiefs, they should follow their advice in all affairs within the province of there technical advisers. To collect a second set of advisers in any form is to risk the receipt of two different sets of advice, in which case Ministers, necessarily incompetent in such technical matters, become the arbiters of practically the whole military strategy. If the best men have been chosen as Chiefs of the War and General Staffs, then the other advisers will not be the best men, and if their advice be followed it will, at the best, be the second-best advice. It is not fitting to subject Ministers to such temptations. The writer has no doubt at all that Ministers present at Interallied War Conferences should be accompanied by the Chiefs of the War and General Staffs, or their representatives. It is a slight upon them that it should be otherwise, and it can be shown that it is also a grave and, indeed, a fatal disadvantage. It is the duty of advisers to advise, and the Advisory Military Committee is not likely to be backward in this respect. But they have no executive powers, and, therefore, this wholly false position will arise, that power will be divorced from responsibility, and that one set of people may offer advice, and blame the executants if things go wrong; while another set of people will execute and will blame the advisers if the same thing happens. Who, then, will be responsible for anything? Nobody can say.

THE IRISH GUARDS.

A solemn Requiem Mass will be held at 11.30 to-morrow at the Oratory, Brompton, London, says The Times, in memory of the officers, warrant officers, non-commissioned officers, and men of the Irish Guards who have fallen in action during the past year. Any persons desirous of attending should apply for tickets to the Regimental Adjutant, Headquarters, Irish Guards, Buckingham Gate, S.W. 1.

THE KING'S VISIT TO BEDFORDSHIRE.

The King yesterday motored from London to Bedfordshire on a tour of inspection of industrial works. Most of the streets in the neighbourhood of the works visited were thronged with people, who gave His Majesty a hearty welcome. In the course of his tour the King went to certain works where tungsten, which was formerly the practical monopoly of Germany, is produced. His Majesty inspected samples of the ore, and saw the packed tungsten ready for shipment. In one part of the works His Majesty and party were asked to withdraw to a considerable distance while a new furnace was lighted. The red glare and the blinding white light and heat became so intense that the spectators were forced to make a further retreat. From an upper floor His Majesty watched the various processes of the manufacture of tungsten, and it was explained to him that the production of pure metallic tungsten involved the treatment of certain mixtures in the furnaces at a heat of 1,200 to 1,400 degrees Centigrade for periods of 12 to 24 hours. The workpeople, who include many women and girls, turned out to cheer His Majesty as he drove away. In another part of the district the King visited a fuse works, where the girl employés gave him a rousing reception. His Majesty saw the process of fuse-making from start to finish, and chatted with several of the women workers, who number 5,000 out of a total staff of 5,600.

RAID BY BELGIAN TROOPS.

ENEMY GUNS BUSY IN YPRES REGION.

ATTACK REPULSED AT ARMENTIERES.

Sir Douglas Haig reports a successful raid by Belgian troops south-east of Nieuport, in which a number of Germans were killed, and prisoners taken.

An enemy attack against our positions at Armentières was repulsed.

During yesterday the enemy's artillery was busy at a number of points in the Ypres region.

BRITISH OFFICIAL.

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS, FRANCE, TUESDAY, 10.15 A.M.

Belgian troops carried out a successful raid early yesterday morning against a hostile post south-east of Nieuport. A number of Germans were killed and several prisoners taken. The whole of the raiding party returned.

Last night the enemy attacked one of our posts north-east of Armentières, but was repulsed by rifle and machine gun fire.

Hostile artillery developed great activity early this morning south-east of Ypres.

4.10 P.M.

During the day the enemy's artillery has shown increased activity at a number of points on the Ypres battle front. Hostile shelling has been particularly heavy throughout the day against our positions in the neighbourhood of Fasseleandaele.

FRENCH OFFICIAL.

Tuesday Afternoon.—In the region north-west and east of Rheims the Germans, after a lively bombardment, carried out various raids, which achieved no success.

Tuesday Evening.—The enemy artillery, vigorously opposed by our guns, bombarded our first lines in Champagne in the region of the heights, and at some points of our front in the Argonne. The day was quiet everywhere else.

GERMAN OFFICIAL.

Tuesday Afternoon.—Army Group of Crown Prince Rupprecht—In Flanders we repulsed by our fire and in counter-thrust, strong reconnoitring detachments launched against our positions in the early morning by Belgians in the Ypser region and by the English on the battle front. The artillery duel continued to be heavy. Tel El Sheria was also captured, and our right in this zone connected by mounted troops with our front line. Yesterday, on the night of the Turks were beaten and retreating, and mounted troops, supported by infantry, were sent north on Sheria to pursue them towards Jemameh and Huj, seven and nine miles, respectively, east of Gaza. At midnight an attack was launched against the very strong works covering Gaza, which were captured with very little opposition, and infantry and mounted troops are on the morning of the 7th towards the mouth of the Wadi Hesi. Some Turks still held on in the Atawin position (six or seven miles from Gaza, on the Beersheba road), but by the morning of November 8th these works were also in our possession. On this day (7th) Scottish infantry, after an exhausting march through the sand dunes, reached the mouth of the Wadi Hesi. Australian and New Zealand mounted troops, supported by Londoners, pushed forward from Sheria, meeting with opposition from the enemy's rearguards, which was finally overcome by a gallant charge made by the Warwick and Worcester Yeomanry. On our extreme right the troops were still opposed by 4,000 to 5,000 Turks.

FURTHER PROGRESS.

NOVEMBER 8TH.

During the night and morning good progress was made, and by 6 p.m. on this day our mounted troops had reached the upper course of the Wadi Hesi, north of Tel El Hesi (five miles north of Jemameh), and had possession of Huj, where stores of all sorts were on fire. A smart action was fought near Beit Hanun, Indian Imperial Service Cavalry captured prisoners and a heavy howitzer, while the Scottish troops, now on the right bank of the Wadi Hesi, had captured Herbieh (8) miles from Gaza and established the coastal railway.

According to the latest information, the number of prisoners which had passed through the collecting stations up to the night of the 11th was 5,894, including 236 officers.

Turkish Official—Tuesday.—Sinai Front.—Enemy cavalry which attacked in the sector of our right wing was repulsed, and an enemy aeroplane was brought down.

SIR ARCHIBALD MURRAY'S WORK.

Mr. MACPHERSON, replying to Commander Wedgwood, said that General Murray was mentioned in despatches dated 3rd November, 1917, for good work in connection with the organisation of certain minor expeditions on the lines of communication in Palestine, which had maintained a large force in the desert, and so prepared the way for the successful operations, resulting in the defeat of the Turks at Gaza and Beersheba.

WINTER RACING

Colonel FABER, in the House of Commons yesterday, asked the Prime Minister if he would state whether winter racing could be allowed, provided that no train facilities were asked for.

Mr. WARDLE—The points raised in the question are at present under consideration.

PRINCE ALBERT.

Yesterday's list of Admiralty appointments contains the following:—Acting Lieutenant H.R.H. Prince Albert, K.G., to the Cranwell Air Station for executive duties, to date November 12.

The six German prisoners who escaped from Scotland Camp, Chester, have been re-captured.

PREMIER'S PARIS SPEECH.

STATEMENT IN COMMONS.

MR. ASQUITH'S ATTITUDE.

VIEWS OF FRENCH PRESS.

Mr. ASQUITH, rising at question time in the House of Commons yesterday, said—May I ask the Chancellor of the Exchequer whether the Prime Minister is likely to be here to-morrow, and, if so, whether he will be prepared to make a statement with regard to the very serious matters touched upon in his speech yesterday in Paris? (Cheers.)

Mr. BONAR LAW—The Prime Minister

DUBLIN CITY AND COUNTY COLLECTIONS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—I have much pleasure in enclosing you cheque £4,454 6s. 9d., being the nett amount collected in the City and County of Dublin in connection with the "Our Day" Fund, 18th October.

The gross sum collected was £4,637 10s 8d., less expenses for rent, insurance, advertising, printing, etc., £183 3s. 11d., making a nett total as above.

I send you a list of the collections made in the various districts in the city and county, together with a list of collecting cards, church collections, general subscriptions, proceeds of Pageant, and the result of the sale of jewellery, pictures, etc.

On behalf of my Committee, I desire to return hearty thanks to all those who worked so indefatigably in the securing of such a splendid amount in aid of the great Red Cross cause.—Yours, etc.,

JOHN S. RUSSELL,
Hon. Treasurer.

14 Dawson street, Dublin,
November 13th, 1917.

THE JEWELLERY FUND.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—Your list to-morrow will show how far we have progressed towards our thousand pounds—£918 5d. Indeed, the kindness and generosity of our friends, known and unknown, is quite beyond words, and we stand in a grateful wonder at the liberality which has amassed such a sum in a little over a fortnight. We have been helped by all, poor and rich, and a generous purchase from our stock by Lady Wimborne has aided very considerably in nearing the goal.

We are also helped by those who come in to buy from us, and we have sold many articles intended later on to be Christmas gifts. Every day brings in fresh and charming consignments to our offices, and purchasers will find a great variety to choose from of jewellery, lace, and antiques. It is hard to find words to thank our many kind donors.—Yours, etc.,

R. S. ARNOTT,
Chairman of Committee;
MARY M. MURPHY,
ISA M. MACNIE.

14 Dawson street, Dublin,
November 13th, 1917.

A WATERLOO MEDAL.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—I enclose herewith a Waterloo medal for the Cross Fund (a collector of medals may feel pleasure in giving £10 for it, which, I am informed, is about its present value) as a memento of Hero Denis MacAlister, gunner in the Royal Foot Artillery, who played his noble part in the salvation of our Empire, and whose spirit may rejoice in helping the good work for his worthy successors.—Yours, etc.,

JOHN S. CRAWFORD.

CONCERT AT THE THEATRE ROYAL.

Madame Fanny Moody and Mr. Charles Manners have organised for the Red Cross Fund what promises to be a capital concert. The beautiful balcony and marriage scenes in "Romeo and Juliet" are well known, but the second part is a novelty. It will consist of tableaux vivants of celebrated songs on the Theatre Royal stage, while the songs will be sung behind the scenes by Madame Moody and Mr. Manners. The Countess of Fingall, the Countess of Granard, Viscountess Gormanston, Lady Decies, Lady Arnott, and Mrs. Fowle are organising these songs.

The third part will consist of songs—"Goodbye," "In Cellar Cool," "Father O'Flynn"—which Dublin has often heard Madame Moody and Mr. Charles Manners sing. The concert will take place at the Theatre Royal on the 24th inst.

CLONES AND THE RED CROSS.

This year's contribution to the Red Cross Fund from Clones is likely to eclipse all previous records, to judge by the enthusiasm with which the work is being taken up by the local committee. A successful dance has been held. With the co-operation of the Clones Farming Society, a Farmers' Gift Sale is to be held in the Town Hall on the 11th December, and it is expected to be a great success.

RED CROSS SALE AT KILLUCAN.

A highly successful sale and collection organised at Killucan by Miss Eliza Reynell and Mrs. Smyth (Gaybrook) brought in £64 18s. for the Red Cross. The day was fine, and all the willing helpers quickly disposed of their goods. Mr. Napier Magill presented a fat lamb, to be raffled for, which realised £10, and was won by Mr. P. King, Delvin.

Rathdrum District Council and Major Price.—The Rathdrum District Council, which recently passed a resolution not to hold further meetings until Major Price had been removed from office, met on Monday, the Clerk pointing out that the members were liable to be surcharged to the amount of £175 if the claims for recoupment of salaries under the Public Health Act were not paid.

THE WORLD OVER.

PEOPLE, PLACES, AND EVENTS IN THE NEWS.

ORIGINAL CAST OF "LES CLOCHES."

When "Les Cloches de Corneville" was produced thirty-nine years ago at the Globe Theatre, London, it was an instant success, running well over 500 nights. This opera, now being played for a week at the Dublin Empire, had for its original cast Shiel Barry as Gaspard, which he played continuously for many years; W. J. Hill as The Bailey, Emma Chambers as Serpolette, Kate Monroe as Germaine, etc. Although Planquette wrote "Rip Van Winkle" afterwards, in which Fred. Leslie was so excellent, nothing approached "Les Cloches" in popularity.

DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS.

In the Divorce Court, London, Mr. Justice Horridge heard an application by Miss Violet Vanbrugh, the actress, asking that her suit against her husband, Mr. Arthur Bourchier, should not be taken before December 11th. The reason, said counsel, was that the lady was under heavy penalties to appear at certain places in the country, and she could not get to court before the date mentioned. The case was allowed to stand over.

LONG DRIVE AND NO "STREET."

The Lord Mayor of London's coachman must be a genius in the way he thought out how to drive his distinguished master to Buckingham Palace without going through a "street." The route is interesting, and, after all, not really roundabout. From the Mansion House, he went through Poultry, Cheapside, St. Paul's Churchyard, Ludgate Hill, Old Bailey, Holborn Viaduct, Holborn, High Holborn, Drury lane, Long Acre, St. Martin's lane, Trafalgar square, Pall Mall East, Pall Mall, Marlborough Gate, St. James's Park. The avoidance of Newgate "street" was the most circuitous, and the most ingenious.

THE ODD THOUGHT IN THE TRENCHES.

There is a sentiment, in relation to domestic and other pets, running through the letters of some of our soldiers. A South Staffordshire officer, now in the trenches, wrote recently: "Don't forget to let me know about the health and spirits of my 'dear old pit pony, Wallace.' I will be still in No. 6 stall?" The same recipient also got a note from a companion who is in the Lincolnshires. He says: "We have had a hot time lately. Don't think it ridiculous, but when we were in the thick of the fight I was continually thinking about my 'chuckies.' How's my old pal, the grey Sussex hen? I should relish one of her eggs."

SCENE IN OPERA HOUSE.

At the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, on Monday evening, the curtain had fallen on the last act of "Aida." It rose again, and the principal artistes, Caruso, Amato Muzio, Matzenauer, and Ruysdael filed out of the wings, and the full chorus and ballet performed up in the background. Ruysdael then unfolded a big American flag, and the orchestra broke into the "Star Spangled Banner," the artistes singing each in turn, and the chorus sweeping into the refrain. Rising at the first strains, the great audience yelled until the final notes, and then burst into frenzy as the Metropolitan Opera House has never before witnessed such a dramatic spectacle.

WOODWORTH HEIRLOOMS.

Mr. William Wordsworth, C.I.E., of Villa Wordsworth, Capri, Italy, eldest surviving grandson of the poet, and formerly principal of Elphinstone College, Bombay, has left Italy. The testator bequeathed all the letters, MSS., and papers of his grandfather, William Wordsworth, Poet Laureate, to his cousin, Gordon Wordsworth, of The Stepping Stones, Ambleside, expressing the wish that he will leave them to the library of St. John's College, Cambridge.

JERUSALEM.

Our soldiers in Palestine are now treading in the steps of Sennacherib. The doctors should save the British Army from the fate which overtook Sennacherib's host. The cause of the seemingly miraculous melting away of the great army was in part cholera and in part typhus. The soldier has his Bible and can read all about that siege. The army of Sennacherib lies in dust beneath his feet as he marches towards Jerusalem. But those at home can study the story in the British Museum, and see Sennacherib's prism, a narrative of the events, written on baked terra cotta tablets. Sir Henry Layard brought them home. The Holy City has probably seen more sieges than any other city in the world. Its chequered history records over a score of sieges by great armies, from its conquest by the men of Judah in 1400 B.C., until the rule of the Turks began exactly 600 years ago.

ALL FIGHTING IN THREE MONTHS.

In granting three months' exemption, with leave to apply again, to a Mr. Bishop, a colliery owner in Wales, the Chairman of the Metropolitan Asylums Board Tribunal said—"The reason why we do not give a longer period is because it may be in three months' time everybody will have to fight."

OUR WAR SAVINGS.

TERRIBLE FUTURE FORETOLD IF WAYS NOT MENDED.

Speaking at a War Savings meeting at Fulham Town Hall last night, the Controller of the National War Savings Committee stated that the small investor was showing his ability to save and lend to the State work by week with a regularity which should be an example to the well-to-do. The savings of the small investor in the Post Office Savings Bank and in the War Savings Bank and in the War Savings Certificate and other Government securities, were amounting week after week to between two and three and two million pounds. Large numbers of the poorer classes contributed their weekly quota to their War Savings Associations with absolute regularity. The monied classes ought to be able to subscribe scores of millions invested last week in National War Bonds. A great deal more energy would have to be put into the next loan campaign by the ward War Savings Committees. These committees had done splendid work in the War Loan campaign and in the spring food campaign, for which the country owed them a debt of gratitude; but they must not rest on their laurels. There was not yet the same vigour being put into the War Savings campaign as had been put into the War Loan campaign, and yet the situation to-day was quite as serious, if not more serious, than it was in the spring. We had come to the turning point of the war, and victory would go to those who showed that they possessed the staying power and determination. Large sections of the community in reality appeared to fail entirely to appreciate their duty to the country and their duty to those who were risking, and often sacrificing, their lives. Luxury and extravagance were still rampant in many parts of the country. It was financial madness for the civilian population to continue to spend its money on unnecessary things, as was being done to-day, and unless there was an immediate change of habits and a wholesale reduction of consumption, there would come a terrible day of reckoning. This day might be nearer at hand than some people imagined.

CORPORATION HOUSING SCHEMES.

The Dublin Tenants' Association have addressed an open letter to the Government and to Municipal authorities in these countries in connection with the threatened eviction of 352 families in the Boyne street and Crabbe lane areas of Dublin, where the Corporation are about to carry out housing schemes. The letter points out that, owing to the deplorable conditions that prevail in the city, it is impossible to foresee a solution of Dublin's housing problem if present methods of maladministration are persisted in, and says that it is plain to all who are anxious for genuine housing reform that a beginning can only be made by building sufficient cottages on virgin sites in and around the city before any more slum clearances are attempted.

Temporary Lieutenant-Colonel A. D. Murphy.—General regret was expressed in Clubel at the announcement of the death in action in France yesterday of the death of temporary Lieut.-Colonel Alfred D. Murphy, D.S.O., M.C., at the age of 39. He was the second son of Lieut.-Col. G. W. Murphy, Ballinamona House, Cashel. Born in 1890, he was educated at Downside College, and in 1911 he entered the Leinsters, the regiment in which his father had served for twenty years. He went to France as a Second Lieutenant at the outbreak of the war, and had been continuously in the firing line since that time. He was mentioned in despatches by Sir John French, and was awarded the Distinguished Service Order. Afterwards the Military Cross was conferred on him. His promotion was rapid, and for some time prior to his death he had been temporarily in command of his battalion.

Captain J. H. Fletcher.—Captain J. H. Fletcher, D.S.O., M.C., R.A.M.C., wounded, is a son of Mr. J. H. Fletcher, Killeshandra. He was educated at Mountjoy School, Dublin, and entered the Army in 1914, having graduated at Trinity College, Dublin. He won the Military Cross in June, 1915, a bar to the M.C. at the Somme in 1916, and the D.S.O. at Arras in 1917.

Lieutenant R. J. Darcus.—News has just been received that Lieutenant R. J. Darcus, Canadian Mounted Rifles, sixth son of Mr. S. H. Darcus, Valetta, Kingstown, has been severely wounded in action.

Second Lieutenant J. Tate.—Second Lieutenant Johnston Tate, Royal Irish Fusiliers, officially reported killed in action on 7th inst., was the younger son of Mr. Robert Tate, of Cedar avenue, Belfast (of the firm of Tate Bros., Bridge street). The deceased officer, who was 27 years of age, obtained his commission through the Queen's University O.T.C. on the 24th August, 1915, and saw much service on an Eastern front. Only a few weeks ago he was discharged from hospital in Alexandria, and returned to the front.

PROLONGATION OF PARLIAMENT.

In the House of Commons yesterday,

Mr. BONAR LAW, in moving the second reading of the Parliament and Local Elections (No. 2) Bill said that this was the fourth time a bill had been introduced to extend the life of Parliament. It was obvious that the longer the life of Parliament was prolonged, the further Parliament got from contact with the electors, while the longer it continued to exist while the present register remained in force, the less fit the register became to expose the views of the people. But the House would feel, as he did, that all that was involved in a general election ought to be avoided at a time when the whole of the energies of the House and country were required for something different. (Hear, hear.) He had never taken up the position that, under no circumstances should an exception take place—even under existing conditions—and he could imagine contingencies arising which would make an election essential. The first of those contingencies was—that the Government could be constituted in the present House of Commons which would command the necessary support for the vigorous prosecution of the war; while, secondly, it might be found that Parliamentary time came to put its best into its business, and was faltering in its task, which the country intended to see through. The third of these contingencies had arisen. The last bill prolonged the life of Parliament for seven months. The present bill asked the House to extend it for eight months. Referring to an amendment, down in the name of Mr. Peto, refusing to extend the life of Parliament unless the electorate was given an opportunity of demanding a by-election in any constituency in which a reasonable number of the electors called for the resignation of any member, he said that the object of the amendment evidently was to get rid of members who were not at one either with the House of Commons, or the nation, in their determination to prosecute the war vigorously. He was, however, opposed to the amendment. Such an innovation would be a sign, not of strength, but of weakness.

MR. ASQUITH.

Mr. ASQUITH pointed out that, but for the Parliament Act, which cut short the career of Parliament from seven to five years, this would have been the first time it was necessary to propose a prolongation. He hoped that the House would agree to the proposal of the Government. It was in the highest degree undesirable that, unless in one or other of the contingencies to which Mr. Bonar Law had referred, they should, during the stress of the war, become involved in the turmoil and distraction of a general election.

MR. PETO'S AMENDMENT.

Mr. PETO then moved his amendment. He said that his object was effectively to purge the House of Commons of the discordant elements in it, members who were acting in a manner contrary to the will of the people as a whole, and of their own constituents in particular.

Mr. JOYNSON HICKS, in seconding, said that they should take steps to secure for the House the closest possible reflex of the opinion of the country.

Mr. T. MASON opposed the amendment.

Mr. BUTCHER characterised it as a scandal that members who had been called upon to serve their country should still speak in that House in the name of constituencies which they misrepresented. Eight members had been repudiated by their constituencies.

Mr. OUTHWAITE claimed that he had fulfilled every pledge he gave to the electors of Hanley. It was said that the speeches of such as he and his friends were of assistance to the enemy. (Capt. Stanley Wilson—"So they are.") If they wanted speeches that were of assistance to the enemy they had got them the previous day in Paris. (Cheers.)

General PAGE CROFT supported the amendment.

Mr. HAYES FISHER said that it was hoped to have a new register by August next, and that would be the proper time to consider whether there ought to be a general election. With regard to by-elections, he was wished that the hon. member for Hanley could persuade hon. members who sat near him, and who evidently did not represent the opinions of their constituents (Mr. Snowden and other members—"How do you know?") to take the law into their own hands and submit themselves for re-election. He was afraid that Mr. Peto's suggestion was impracticable for producing the desired result, and he could only hope that members who had changed their views would realise that they were morally bound to seek re-election.

The House divided, and the amendment was defeated by 222 to 18.

Sir FREDERICK BANBURY intimated that on the Committee stage he should move to reduce the period of prolongation, as he considered that eight months was too long.

The bill was then read a second time.

FOOD ECONOMY NATIONAL SAFETY

Save food

IF you cut down your food by one-fifth, how can you still obtain the same amount of nourishment as before? The problem looks impossible, but it is not so in fact, for if you get more nourishment from the food you do eat you will solve it.

Take a concrete instance. If there are 5 units of nourishment in bread when you buy it, you expect to get 5 units when you eat it. As a matter of fact you do not get that at all, because a good deal of the nourishment is not absorbed by the body. To take a rough and ready simile. If you put coal on a fire in the evening, and leave the fire overnight, you will find that a good deal of the coal is unburnt in the morning when the fire is out. This is much what happens to food in the body, and the "unburnt" food is wasted.

There is a simple way to reduce this loss, a way tested and approved by the highest scientific authorities. It is to take Bovril.

It has long been an accepted fact, proved by independent scientific investigation, that Bovril has a body-building power equal to from 10 to 20 times the amount taken. This is now confirmed in a very striking way in the following report from the "Medical Times":—

"The addition of a small teaspoonful of Bovril to the diet as a peptogenic before meals leads to more thorough digestion and assimilation and thus saves food.

"The diet may be then cut down from ⅓ to ¼ and the body still be adequately nourished."

Extract from the review by the "Medical Times" of the investigations on Food Economy conducted by Dr. J. Campbell, late Food Expert to the Metropolitan Campaign for Food Economy.

Help to save the Nation's food and still keep yourself well fed by taking a cup of Bovril as soup before meals, or by using a little Bovril in your cooking.

CITY OF DUBLIN STEAM-PACKET COMPANY.

At the half-yearly meeting (presided over by Sir William Watson) the resolutions passed adopting the report and declaring the dividends were adopted, and the following resolution was also carried unanimously:—That we, the shareholders of the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company, having heard the explanatory statement on behalf of the Board, request the Government, in the interests of the Irish public, that a full and immediate inquiry be held immediately into all the circumstances under which the control of our cargo ships was taken from our hands and the manner in which the control of the shipping is carried out in the port of Dublin, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Controller of Shipping, the Chief Secretary for Ireland, and the Irish members of Parliament."

A Reuter's Sydney telegram states that the strike leaders, Willis, Buckley, and Thompson have been charged with conspiracy. The jury agreed upon the first two counts, finding the accused guilty of instigating and inciting railwaymen to strike, but disagreed upon the third count, that of preventing the Railway Commissioners from carrying on the services. The jury were locked up for the night.

The Report and Statement of Accounts were read, adopted, and ordered to be printed. Resolutions were passed unanimously—

That the Report and Accounts now read be received and adopted.

That a dividend at the rate of five per cent. per annum (less income tax) be paid to the Proprietors of the First Pref. Cost. Cumulative Preference Stock of the Company for the half-year ended 31st August last, and that warrants for same be transmitted by post on Thursday, 15th instant."

That a dividend at the rate of five and a half per cent. per annum (less income tax) be paid to the Proprietors of the Ordinary Stock of the Company for the half-year ended 31st August last, and that the warrants for same be transmitted by post on Thursday, 15th instant."

That we, the shareholders of the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company, having heard the explanatory statement on behalf of the Board, request the Government, in the interests of the Irish public, that a full and immediate inquiry be held immediately into all the circumstances under which the control of our cargo ships was taken from our hands and the manner in which the control of the shipping is carried out in the port of Dublin, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Controller of Shipping, the Chief Secretary for Ireland, and the Irish members of Parliament."

That a vote of thanks to Directors, Staff, and the Rev. Francis Archbold.

NORTHERN BANKING COMPANY LIMITED.

An Extra General Meeting of the Proprietors of the Stock of the Northern Banking Co., Ltd., will be held in the Head Office of the Bank in Victoria street, Belfast, on Thursday, 15th November next, at 12 o'clock noon, to confirm Resolutions dealing with a subdivision of the Ordinary Shares, and if said Resolution be confirmed, a further Extra General Meeting will be held at immediately after the conclusion of the above Meeting to propose Resolutions arising thereout.

By Order,
WM. STEEN, Secretary.

THE SHORTAGE OF WHISKEY.

Yesterday the ordinary weekly meeting of the Committee of the Licensed Grocers' and Vintners' Protection Association was held in the offices, Commercial Buildings, Dame street, Dublin, in the absence of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman (Mr. James T. Ryan) presided.

The question of the shortage of spirits was discussed, and the Chairman called attention to the action of those dealers who were advertising offering at auctions quantities of whiskey in bulk. He said he thought, in view of the great shortage and the greater shortage which there would be later on, that action on the part of such traders was to be in every way deplored. It was depleting the stocks of the native product which remained in the country, and was calculated in its effect to do a permanent injury to the Irish pot-still industry.

Mr. Brereton said he agreed with the remarks of the Chairman, and said it was deplorable how short-sighted many traders appeared to be, judging from their action in this matter. He moved the following resolution:—

That this meeting of the Committee of the Licensed Grocers' and Vintners' Association deprecates, in the most emphatic fashion, the action of those traders who are putting on the market stocks of whiskey, practically the whole of which is purchased by consignments from the other side of the Channel, at a time that traders at home cannot obtain supplies; that such action is unpatriotic and strained the interests of the Irish industry, particularly in view of the Government action in supervising Irish distilling during the present winter season, as it will break up the continuity of the Irish pot-still product on the market later on, and is playing into the hands of the patent distillers, who will then be able to grab up the whole trade."

Mr. Pierce Ryan, in seconding the resolution, said that at the present time it was essential that everything possible should be done to conserve the Irish stocks of an article whose quality had made it world-famous.

Mr. Fanning, Mr. O'Hara and other members having supported the motion, it was put to the meeting and carried unanimously.

MEATH COUNTY COUNCIL AND ALLOTMENTS ACT.

A special meeting of the Meath County Council was held at Navan yesterday to receive a deputation from the "Back to the Land" Committee to consider a resolution stating that the Council viewed with alarm and regret the continued decline in the population of the County Meath. If the cause which led to the decline was not promptly dealt with the county would be eventually reduced to a wilderness. In order to arrest the decay of the population the resolution requested the Government to forthwith introduce legislation, the same in principle, and to serve the same objects, as the Small Holdings and Allotments Act, 1908, now in operation in Scotland.

Mr. Pie. White, M.P., said that in the County Meath the labouring man could not obtain pasture for his cow, and they held that this was an intolerable and inhuman position for any community to be in.

Sir N. T. Evérard said he thought the most urgently important matter mentioned by the deputation was the provision of allotments. He could hardly understand why any neighbouring farmer would be so inhuman as to refuse the grass for his labourers' cows. Many of the labourers had not the means to acquire a cow, but they could buy a goat. Dealing with the question of the provision of land for non-economic holdings, he emphasised the fact that many of the large grazing holdings owned by absentees, and let annually by auction on the 11 months' system, would, under the Compulsory Tillage Order, probably provide plenty of land, so that these grievances would disappear. 200 or 300 acres, representing the owners' quota of tillage, might be let for a couple of years in connacre, but it would have to be measured or farmed, and the absentee, having no interest in farming, could not possibly hold it.

The Resolution was amended by the addition of wording making it applicable to all Ireland, and it was decided to pass it unanimously.

A Reuter's New York telegram states that the Aero Club of America has passed a resolution, urging Congress to appropriate not less than one billion dollars for the building of an emergency air fleet of huge warplanes, of an off-set to the mobility of the Germans on the interior lines of communication, and it is urged that this should be in addition to the billion dollars needed to carry out the general aeronautic programme.

FINANCIAL NEWS

DUBLIN STOCK EXCHANGE.

MARKETS MOSTLY QUIET. FUNDS GOOD. PROVINCIAL BANKS BUOYANT. TEXTILES GENERALLY STRONG. DUNLOPS EASY.

DUBLIN, Tuesday Evening.

There were very quiet and mostly uneventful markets on Change again to-day. Rather marked firmness was shown in Government Funds, while Textiles met with material support at rising prices. The market in Dunlops was dull and easy, especially for Dunlop Rubber Ord., which are in full supply for the moment. The Funds tended upwards again to-day. Consols rose a further ⅛ to 55⅛. War Loan 4½ per cent. ⅛ to 99½. War Loan 5 p.c. ¼ to 9⅝ after opening ¼ less; do. transferable by deed ¼ to 93¼, and Local Loans 3 p.c. ¼ to 59½, while Irish Land 3 p.c. repeated 59½, and India 3 p.c. realised 55.

Banks were mostly quiet, but the outstanding feature was the buoyancy of Provincial Old shares, which rose another 2 to 26 for a few shares. Nationals were easy, and declined ⅛ to 15⅞ at the close, after earlier dealing at last price. Hibernians at 4½ were steady.

The market in Breweries and Distilleries was very quiet. Dublin Distillers' Ord. eased 9d. to 68s. 3d., but the Pref. rose ½ to 6⅞ for an odd lot. Guinness Ord. at 129 were nom., and closed bid for.

In Telegraphs Marconi Ord. fell 4½d. more to 84s. 9d. Americans repeated 21s. 6d. and Canadians 10s. 3d.

Home Rails were steady. Great Northern Ord. repeated 87, and the Guaranteed 75½, but Midland Great Western, 4 p.c. Pref. rose ¼ to 54, and Dublin and South-Eastern "A" Debs. 66. West Carbery shares realised 15s. 6d.

Trams were neglected.

Dunlops were rather slack. Dunlop Rubber Ord. fell 3d. to 89s. 9d. sellers, and Parent Tyre Ord. 3d. to 94s. 4½d. The Deferred closed on offer at 54s. 6d., or 1½d. under yesterday's level, but did not change hands. Dunlop Rubber "B" 6½ p.c. Pref. repeated 20s. 9d.

In Drapery Shares Arnott Pref. changed hands at 86s. 3d.

There was quite a buoyant tone about most of the leading Textile shares on satisfactory trading reports. Bradford Dyers' Ord. rose 2s. 6d. to 33s.; Calico Ord. 2½d. to 14s., 14s. 1d.; English Sewing Cotton Ord. 6d. to 53s. 3d., and Fine Cotton Spinners' Ord. 1s. 3d. to 34s. 9d. Coats eased ¼ to 6⅞ after opening at last price. Hayes Debs. closed about 67s. 6d., and Brooks, Thomas Pref. rose 3d. to 16s. 3d.

Rhymney 6 p.c. Bonds repeated 101½.

Fine Cotton Spinners' Preferred Ord. realised 17s. 6d. Hibernian Fire 5s. paid par, Triumph Ord. 46s. 3d., and Anglo-Java Rubber 7s. 9d.

The Lessee covenants to erect, and Gartlan v. Kelly, shall be sent, to Green's Court, Cork Street, Justice Barton's Chambers, Four Courts, Dublin, so as to be held not later than on or before the 23rd day of November, 1917. All such Tenders will, on the 26th day of November, 1917, be submitted to the Hon. Mr. Justice Barton for his consideration.

LOT 1.

The Premises situate at the corner of Hill street and Mason street, in the town of Newry and County of Down, which consist of a large shop on the ground floor, with a kitchen, scullery, and small yard at the rear. On the second and third stories there are commodious sitting and bedrooms. The buildings are in the principal street, and are most favourably adapted for a shop, and on any other part of the town. The lot is let for a term of 99 years, and subject to existing tenancies.

LOT 2.

The Premises are situate in Lower Water street, in the town of Newry, and County of Down, and consist of a large yard and two storey stable, slated. There are two cottages attached to the centre of the house. This lot will be let on a repairing lease for 99 years, and subject to existing tenancies.

Dated this 12th day of November, 1917.

For further particulars apply to—

R. A. MULLAN and SON, Solicitors, 43 Dame street, and Newry; or

P. J. O'HARE, Solicitor to the Trustees under the Trust Created by Deed, 24 St. Andrew street, Dublin, and Newry.

CO. KILDARE.

I HAVE received instructions from the Representatives of the late Thomas Shaw, Esq., to SELL BY AUCTION,

At 29 PRUSSIA STREET, DUBLIN

On TO-MORROW THURSDAY, 15th NOVEMBER, At One o'clock,

The following Valuable Property:—

BARRETTSTOWN, containing 36a. 1r. 17p. Statute, held in Fee-simple, subject to an Annuity of £2 2s. 10d. payable to Irish Land Commission, beginning on the 1st October, 1911, and terminating in 1961. The lot has been resold. In addition to said advance, the late Owner paid £1,150 in cash.

There is an up-to-date Residence on these Lands, not requiring any outlay, containing 2 sitting-rooms, 5 bedrooms, servants' rooms, kitchen, dairy, bathroom (hot and cold water), w.c., services, gas plant. The out-offices are in 2 yards, containing stabling for 11 horses, stalled feeding houses to fit up to over 80 cattle, large lofts, 2 hay barns, one 75 ft. by 42, and another 54 ft. by 21 ft. There are also 10 Workmen's Cottages on the lands. These are about 70 Acres, statute, under tillage and new grass, remainder being prime fattening land, the cattle sold on it usually commanding the highest prices.

The present redemption value of this lot is £4,069, to leave the property free from any annuity. The late owner spent a lifetime in making this place what it now is—one of the most desirable offered for sale for many years. It is about 2 miles from Straffan Station, 3 from Celbridge Station, both G.S. and W. Railway, and 5 miles from Maynooth, M.G.W. Railway.

THE FURNITURE will be SOLD AT SAME TIME AND PLACE.

THE LANDS OF RATHGAR, adjoining above, containing 136a. Or. 19p., Statute, held in Fee-simple, subject to an Annuity of £73 8s 4d., payable to Irish Land Commission, beginning 1st October, 1911, until an advance of £2,259 has been repaid. The redemption value is £3,315, to free it from any annuity.

These Lands are of first-rate fattening quality, except a small portion under tillage.

For Particulars and Conditions of Sale apply to

AT 50 PRUSSIA STREET, DUBLIN,

On THURSDAY, 22nd NOV., 1917,

At the hour of 11.30 a.m.

above conveniently situated Farm, containing about 40 statute acres, purchased under the 1903 Land Act, and subject to a terminable annuity of £52 5s. 0d.

The compact holding, which is all in a ring fence, and of the finest old pasture excepting 2 statute acres in tillage, is situate quite convenient to Clonsilla Railway Station, six miles from Dublin Castle Market, and is well watered, fenced, and sheltered. Owing to its proximity to the city it is specially suited for a dairy farm, market garden, or for a later history, there being plenty of space for workmen's cottages. It would also make a splendid stud farm, being situated in the centre of the best hunting districts in Ireland, and between the two principal railway lines, namely—the M.G.W.R. and the G.S.W.R.
